Best Practices

Legal counseling for deprived housewives of the adjacent locality of college was arranged in collaboration with the gender cell on and from 22nd Nov, 2021 to 27th Nov, 2021. A number of 109 victims of the said categories attended the counseling session which was led by Prof. Manik Chakraborty, former Professor, Department of Law, The University of Burdwan in accompaniment with a number of 5 former students of his practicing in different courts of law. The legal advices received by the said victims were immensely helpful and they repeatedly visited college even after having specific solution to their problems.

An adult literacy drive was arranged by IQAC with the help of a number of 12 teachers to select 41 nos of adult members of 3 adjacent villages of colleges: Atgram, Choto Podhra and Boro Podhra within the age group of 51 to 69 years of age between 21st February 2022 and 26th February 2022. Regular morning and evening classes were arranged in the 'Durga Mandir' of Atgram around 2km away from college campus. This venture became successful enough to enable this candidates to write letters to the principal of college thanking him as well as the entire team for opening up the new vista of their lives.
