Details:

Introduction:

The Department of English and the IQAC Coordinator of Hiralal Bhakat College, Nalhati, Birbhum, WB, India, collaborated on a two-week outreach program from 15/11/21 to 30/11/21 aimed at promoting English readership and distributing English storybooks at Atgram Primary School. The initiative was a great success and was designed to enhance literacy skills among the students and foster a love for reading. The outreach programme spanned 15 days and involved various activities focused on promoting English readership and providing students with access to quality story books. The programme was designed to engage students in interactive learning experiences and foster a love for reading and language development.

Activities:

Day 1-7: Book Distribution and Storytelling Sessions: English storybooks were distributed to the students of Atgram Primary School, ranging from fairy tales to educational books, to cater to different interests and reading levels. Engaging storytelling sessions were organized to captivate the students' interest and encourage them to explore the world of stories and imagination.

Day 8-12: Reading Workshops: Workshops on reading comprehension and language skills were conducted to enhance the students' reading abilities and vocabulary.

Day 13-14: Interactive Reading Sessions: In interactive reading sessions kids were read stories aloud in English by volunteers from Hiralal Bhakat College. Students were encouraged to actively listen and participate in conversations about the stories since the sessions were interesting and participatory.

Day 15: Feedback Session

On the final day, a culmination event was held to celebrate the success of the programme and gather feedback from students, teachers, and volunteers. Students shared their experiences, favourite stories, and expressed gratitude for the opportunity to engage with in this programme in a fun and interactive way.

Outcome:

The two-week outreach program proved to be a success in promoting English readership and fostering a reading culture among the students of Atgram Primary School. The distribution of English storybooks and engaging activities helped ignite the students' interest in reading and improve their language skills. The program also inspired a sense of curiosity and creativity, contributing to holistic development.
