Plan Of Action	Outcomes/ Achievement
Discussion regarding gradual loss of interest among students in online classes to find some remedies	Price hike of internet plans of different mobile network service providers and constant indoor confinement of more than a year caused this gradual loss of interest which was attempted to be restored by means of curricular competitions and a number of extra curricular activities
Slow progress of the process of utilization of RUSA grant especially because of the slow movement of files in PWD Office	The plan and the concerned of PWD was revised for a couple of times following which the e-tender was issued and the concerned vendor took quite a long period prior the initiation of the construction work which got expedited as the regional office of RUSA started the entire operation through a CNA account chain. This process expedited the construction and the renovation work.

Methods of both physical and academic adaptation with the present new-normal situation	Interpersonal counseling and motivational session were arranged at regular interval along with a number of online cultural performances and competitions. This virtual interaction developed a standard procedure for adaptation with the new normal situation.
Planning for academic excellence in the present new-normal situation.	Online quiz competitions, Webinars, online workshops, online certificate courses etc. led the path of academic excellence in the present new normal situation.
Planning for successful commencement of regular offline classes in college by maintaining the restrictions imposed for Covid-19 pandemic.	Gradual loosening of the stricture of Covid-19 protocol led to a consistent process of planning for resuming offline academic activities including regular offline classes by maintaining social distancing process.
