Objective of the Programme:

The objectives of the awareness programme on Anti-ragging include promoting a safe and respectful educational environment, raising awareness about the harmful effects of ragging, empowering students to speak up against ragging, and fostering a culture of zero-tolerance towards bullying and harassment.

Details: On the basis of the resolutions taken at the meeting on Anti-ragging, an awareness programme was organised to have been held on 16th January, 2018. After having the general rituals and formalities of the programme, the TIC of our College, Dr. Debabrata Saha, gave the welcome speech. His speech was all about the general concept on ragging. After that, a few respected Professors from different departments, invited as guests, delivered their valuable words to have made students aware of the situation. Their speech covered a wide range of issues like information about Anti-ragging policies, Grievance Redressal Policy. This was how the whole programme came to an end with vote of thanks given by the convenor. Numerous students from different departments were present at the programme.

Outcome: Students as well as faculty members present at the programme got enriched with the worthy words and information delivered at the different guests' speech. This, therefore, would be expected to have been fruitful to make our institution as zero tolerance to ragging premises.
